

1. Synonym

Question:

Choose the word that is most similar in meaning to "preponderance".

- a) Balance
- b) Excess
- c) Deficit
- d) Scarcity

Answer: b) Excess

Explanation:

"Preponderance" refers to a greater amount or number. "Excess" denotes an amount that is more than necessary, making it the closest synonym.

2. Fill in the Blanks

Question:

You will get the toffees _____ you do as I instruct you.

- a) As long as
- b) As like
- c) Like
- d) So as

Answer: a) As long as

Explanation:

"As long as" indicates a condition, meaning the action will happen if the condition is met.

3. Error Identification

Question:

Identify the part of the sentence that contains an error:

- (A) According to the latest research,
- (B) most of the students appearing for IIT-JEE,
- (C) prepares from the internet.
- (D) No error

Answer: C) prepares from the internet.

Explanation:

The subject "students" is plural, so the verb should be "prepare" instead of "prepares".

4. Sentence Correction

Question:

Shreya was complete mesmerizing by Rajesh's surprise proposal.

- a) Had been completely mesmerizing
- b) Was completely mesmerized
- c) Was complete in mesmerizing
- d) No correction required

Answer: b) Was completely mesmerized

Explanation:

The correct past passive form is "was completely mesmerized".

5. Antonym

Question:

Select the word that is most opposite in meaning to "vanity".

- a) Pride
- b) Humility
- c) Conceit
- d) Indifference

Answer: b) Humility

Explanation:

"Vanity" implies excessive pride, whereas "humility" denotes modesty, making it the antonym.

6. Prepositions

Question:

The boy fell _____ the bicycle.

- a) Of
- b) Off
- c) From
- d) Under

Answer: b) Off

Explanation:

The correct preposition to indicate separation from a surface is "off".

7. Contextual Vocabulary

Question:

Choose the word that best fits the context:

Karishma has been doing quite well in her therapy _____ her frequent panic attacks.

- a) Despite
- b) In spite
- c) Although
- d) Even though

Answer: a) Despite

Explanation:

"Despite" is used to show contrast between two situations.

8. Sentence Improvement

Question:

Which sentence is grammatically correct?

- a) I will be travelling to Gangtok next week
- b) I have been travelling to Gangtok next week
- c) I might have travelled to Gangtok next week
- d) I have to travel for Gangtok in the next week

Answer: a) I will be travelling to Gangtok next week

Explanation:

The sentence correctly uses the future continuous tense to indicate a planned future action.

9. Reading Comprehension

Passage:

"Food is one of the basic necessities of life. Food contains nutrients—substances essential for the growth, repair, and maintenance of body tissues and for the regulation of vital processes."

Question:

According to the passage, why is food essential?

- a) It satisfies hunger
- b) It contains nutrients vital for body functions
- c) It provides energy for daily activities
- d) It is a cultural necessity

Answer: b) It contains nutrients vital for body functions

Explanation:

The passage emphasizes the role of nutrients in growth, repair, and regulation of body processes.

10. Synonym

Question:

Choose the word that is most similar in meaning to "nonchalance".

- a) Neutrality
- b) Indifference
- c) All-knowing
- d) Ignorance

Answer: b) Indifference

Explanation:

"Nonchalance" means a lack of concern or indifference.